Every time I climb a tree,
I hurt my leg and knee.
Every time I climb a tree,
I also find some ants and bees.
And every time I climb a tree,
I am truly happy.
But they don't know I'm free,
Then I hurt my leg and knee.
But every time I climb a tree,
I found a lot of interesting things to see.
Though my parents are angry at me,
This is the place my heart will be.

Hello Tammy,

How are you? I am doing great!

I don't have school tomorrow. Do you know why? It is Lunar New Year in Korea. I feel so happy!

You know, my mom is Korean and my dad is Vietnamese. So, my grandma will come from Vietnam! She will bring some yummy mut. It is candied fruit. We eat it on Lunar New Year's Day. My Korean grandma will make tteokguk. I like this delicious rice cake soup. In Vietnam, children get new clothes on Lunar New Year's Day. But I wanted a colorful Korean hanbok, so my dad bought a new one for me. My hanbok is pink and white.

I must bow to my Korean grandma and my Vietnamese grandma. They will give me lucky money! I want to buy new toys.

The day after Thanksgiving is the start of the holiday shopping season. Thanksgiving is always on a Thursday, so the day after is a Friday. This day has come to be known as Black Friday. It has been the busiest shopping day of the year since 2005.

Most stores offer great deals on Black Friday. They open their doors in the wee hours of the morning. They try to attract shoppers with big discounts. Some items like TVs are much cheaper than usual. Stores may even lose money on these items. They hope that shoppers will buy gifts for other people while they are in the store.

Black Friday is a great time to get good deals. The problem is that there are not enough low-priced items to go around. Each store may only have a few. These items are in high demand. People stand in long lines to get such great deals. They may line up hours before a store opens. They may be hoping to get a low price on a TV or laptop, but not everyone who wants one will get one. Some people leave disappointed.

The situation can be tense. Some Black Friday events have been violent. Large, eager crowds have trampled workers. Fights have broken out over toys or people cutting in line. People have shot one another over parking spots. But most Black Friday events are safe and fun. Still, if you plan on going, expect large crowds and a bit of shoving.

So where does the name "Black Friday" come from? It was first used in Philadelphia in the 1950s. The police called this day Black Friday because of the heavy traffic it drew. In the 1960s, stores tried to rename the day "Big Friday." It did not stick. The name "Black Friday" continued to spread across the country. It seems that it is here to stay.

Now people all over the country take part in the event known as Black Friday. It is even spreading to other parts of the world. Stores have held Black Friday events in the U.K., Australia, and Brazil since 2012. In Costa Rica Black Friday is known as "Viernes Negro." And in Mexico, stores offer an annual weekend of discounts. They call it "El Buen Fin," which means "the good weekend" in Spanish. I guess the language of savings is universal.

23. Which is NOT true about Black Friday?

- A. Black Friday is always the day after Thanksgiving.
- B. Black Friday is the busiest shopping day of the year.
- C. Black Friday is a national holiday.
- D. Black Friday is the start of the holiday shopping season.

24. Which happened first?

- A. Stores tried to rename the day after Thanksgiving "Big Friday."
- B. Black Friday events began happening in Australia.
- C. Police began calling the day after Thanksgiving "Black Friday."
- D. Black Friday became the busiest shopping day of the year.

25. Which is NOT cited as one of the problems of Black Friday?

- A. Stores run out of high demand items quickly.
- B. Nobody really saves any money on Black Friday.
- C. There are large crowds and lots of shoving.
- D. Sometimes violence occurs at Black Friday events.
